To The FCC

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing you this letter in regards to the "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers by the CBA.

I urge you to not let this happen. For many years in the past, Indiana residents and states across the U.S has had to put up with unwanted phone calls by companies trying to sell their products. The State of Indiana has done a great job with the enactment of the "NO CALL LIST" to prevent this from happening any longer.

If you allow the CBA to have an exception to this "call list" you will be undoing what the "call list" was meant to do. I and many others in the State of Indiana do not want to be blasted with unnecessary and unwanted phone calls from banks and mortgage companies. If you allow CBA this and any other exception to the "no call list", then you will have to allow others, and then others, so just where will this all end? Across Indiana, thousands of people have signed up for the "no call list" as I am sure you already know. This should be a message to you that we as Hoosiers, DO NOT WANT TO BE BOTHERED WITH THESE UNWANTED AND UNNECESSARY INTRUSIVE PHONE CALLS! Once again, PLEASE DO NOT GRANT CBA THE EXEMPTION!

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,

Tim Barger
